

Tiger Bay's Top 40 Wetland and Woodland Birds

WETLAND BIRDS

These birds come when the wetlands fill. The ducks and teals are dabblers that nest in tree hollows, while the dotterel feeds on the waters edge. The herons, ibis and spoonbills are often seen perched on the large trees after feeding.

- Pink-eared Duck
- Pacific Black Duck
- Grey Teal
- Red-kneed Dotterel
- Australasian Grebe
- Purple Swamphen
- Dusky Moorhen

- Australian Pelican
- White-necked Heron
- Great Egret
- White-faced Heron
- Australian White Ibis
- Straw-necked Ibis
- Yellow-billed Spoonbill
- Royal Spoonbill
- Glossy Ibis
- Little Pied Cormorant

TREE CANOPY

- Red-winged Parrot
- Australian Ringneck
- Spotted Bowerbird
- Brown Treecreeper
- Little Friarbird
- Blue-faced Honeyeater
- White-plumed Honeyeater
- Noisy Miner
- Yellow-throated Miner
- Black-faced Cuckoo-shrike
- Willie Wagtail
- Australian Raven

GROUND FEEDERS

- Red-rumped Parrot
- Eastern Rosella
- Superb Fairy-wren
- Grey Shrike-thrush
- Australian Magpie
- Pied Butcherbird

WOODLAND BIRDS

- Whistling Kite
- Black Kite
- Red-winged Parrot
- Australian Raven
- Welcome Swallow

BIRDS OF THE AIR

